Total Yukon GDP by Industry, 2001	$1,054,700,000
Growth Rate from 2000 to 2001	1.4%

2001 Highlights

The GDP rose 1.4% in the Yukon, after increasing 2.0% in 2000. The annual increases for 2000 and 2001 represent a modest recovery after the Faro lead-zinc mine closed in 1997 and related operations were subsequently scaled back. In 2001, production in the mining industry was reduced a further19.9%, compared to 2000. In 2001 forestry and logging industry increased 46.7% over 2000. Retail trade continued to provided a lift to the Yukon economy, increasing by 14.1% over 2000. Non- residential building construction was also a source of strength, increasing 13.5% over 2000.

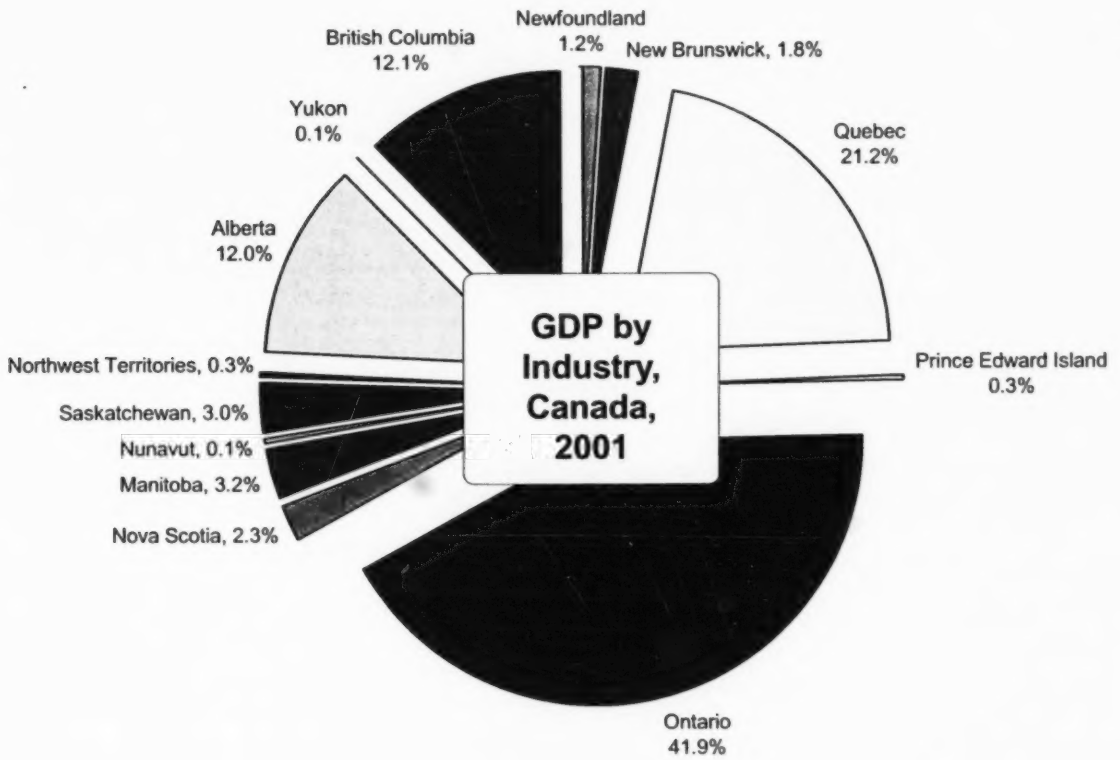
Yukon's Real GDP by Industry, as a percentage of Canada's Total Real GDP by Industry



This analytical report presents Statistics Canada's latest estimates of Yukon's Gross Domestic Product (GDP) by industry in constant (inflation-adjusted) dollars for 1997-2001 and in current (not adjusted for inflation) dollars for 1997-1999. The figures should be considered preliminary and subject to revision.

The estimates contained in this publication are produced by Statistics Canada's Industry Measures and Analysis Division, and are not fully reconciled with the overall provincial/territorial GDP figures produced by Statistics Canada's National Accounts and Environment Division. While the general concepts followed in compiling these estimates are consistent with those underlying the Provincial/Territorial Income and Expenditure Accounts, there still remain some statistical differences between the two sets of estimates. Statistics Canada continues to give priority to statistical integration and a narrowing of the differences.

Note on the definition of the Public Administration Industry:

Economic units (companies or establishments) are classified together in the same industry if they are engaged in the same or a similar kind of economic activity. The industrial grouping does not depend upon whether the activity is carried on by a government agency or by a business enterprise. Because so much of the activity commonly understood as 'government' is reallocated and assigned to its related industrial group in the industrial distribution, the 'Public Administration' industry shown in these tables provides a limited view of the full range of government activity. It includes only those establishments of government which clearly do not belong to any other branch of economic activity, but which are essentially concerned with general administration, the internal service agencies of the public sector, and defense.
